John 21:6 “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” Peter and the disciples had fished all night and caught nothing. They were experienced fishermen, but experience, effort, and determination could not fill their nets. By morning, they were tired, disappointed, and empty-handed.

Then Jesus appeared. He told them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat.” Think about it: same boat, same net, same fishermen, same water—but a different result because they obeyed the voice of Jesus.

Sometimes one difficult season can convince us to quit. One disappointment can make us question our purpose. One rejection can stop us from trying again. One failure can make us believe nothing will ever change, but don't throw away your net because of one bad night. Your empty net does not mean God is finished with you. You may have prayed and seen no change. Keep praying. You may have invited someone, and they said no. Invite again. You may have served without recognition. Keep serving. You may have tried and failed. Get back up.

Galatians 6:9 reminds us, “Let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.”

The disciples discovered that morning that the fish were still there. They simply needed direction from Jesus. So don't quit because yesterday was difficult. Morning is coming. Jesus is still on the shore. Listen to His voice, trust His direction, and cast your net again.
